“Wetlands Walk”

The Bull Creek Wetlands in Western Australia is a beautiful natural area known for its diverse wildlife and scenic trails. The wetlands are part of a series of dampland and wetland reserves linked by Bull Creek. The main trail is a 1.6 km out-and-back route that starts at the end of Curedale Mews. It’s an easy walk. The wetlands are home to a variety of native wildflowers, birds, frogs, snakes, and lizards.

Venue: Bull Creek Cost: $14
Date: Mon 7 Oct Time: 9am mdg

“Home Movies”

1 “Bank on Dave!” is based on the real-life story of Dave Fishwick, whose frustration with the flawed banking system leads him to establish an autonomous lending company. The company was formed as a result of the financial crisis of 2008 in a town of Lancashire.

2 “Going in Style” Desperate to pay their bills and support their loved ones, lifelong pals Willy Davis, Albert Gardner, and Joe Harding risk it all by robbing the bank that absconded with the pension money that they earned from working there for years. Starring Morgan Freeman, Michael Caine

Venue: 35 Osmond Glen, Sawyers Valley
Date: Weds 23 Oct /20 Nov Cost: $13 inc. lunch
Time: 10am or 9.45 car pool mdg
